About the College:-

Shri Satguru Brahma Nand Bhuriwale Garibdassi Rana Gajinder Chand Girls College, Mansowal affiliated to Punjab University Chandigarh was established by Shri Satguru Bhuriwale Garibdassi Education Trust in 1997 to realize the dreams of third Gaddinasheen of Bhuriwale Garibdassi Sect. Sh. Sh. 1008 Brahmleen Shri Satguru Brahma Nand Bhuriwale who dedicated his life to the service of humanity. Presently the college is being run under the kind patronage of Vedant Acharya Swami Shri Satguru Chetna Nand Ji Maharaj Bhuriwale. The college is built up in this rural area with an explicit aim of educating and empowering the girls who were deprived of higher education due to their locality and inadequate resources.

Today we are facing a big challenge of moral laxity in our societies .So, education should inculcate in the girls a strong desire for the development of moral values and commitment towards the society. This will enable them to enter the stream of national life as worthy citizens & to serve better for the upliftment of societies .

College has sufficient infrastructure and play grounds for Football, Basket Ball, Badminton, Yoga , Kho-Kho. It has also a fully equipped library where students can have access to many reputed Journals, Magazines, News Papers & Books of literature and other related information pertaining to higher studies. To enable the girls to keep pace with the changing needs of this globalized world of technology, a modern Computer Lab is well maintained which provides high speed internet access to gather latest information. This college indeed a boon for the girls of this Beet area.
